MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

WEDNESDAY, November 13, 1751.

HAMBURG, Auguſt 3.

WE learn, by the laſt Letters from Peterſburg, that, in Conformity to the Orders of the Empreſs, an Ordinance has been publiſhed there, renewing that of the 11th of May, 1744, which forbids, under very ſevere Penalties, the carrying of any Gold or Silver, or any Species of Ruſſian Money, out of any Part belonging to that Empire.

Frankfort, Auguſt 5. The Pruſſian Officers continue to raiſe a great Number of Recruits in the Neighbourhood of this City; and they are often ſending them away for their reſpective Regiments.

Madrid, July 16. The Report of Mr. Keene's leaving this Court, is entirely without ſo much as any ſeeming Foundation: His perſonal Qualities, have long ſince gained him the Eſteem and Countenance of their Majeſties, and the great Officers; and his miniſterial Abilities, cannot but ſecure him in an Employment, which he has executed with ſuch Fidelity and Succeſs. Poſſibly he is the only Man, by his long Experience in our Affairs, who could bring the Negotiation now depending to an Iſſue, which may prove of equal Satisfaction to the commercial Claſs of both Nations.

Warſaw, July 20. We have the Pleaſure to hear from the Frontiers, that the Activity of the Detachments from the Crown Army, againſt the Heydamacks, many of whom they put to the Sword, have in a great Meaſure ſuppreſſed the Incurſions of thoſe Ravagers.

Madrid, July 27. One of the Points actually diſcuſſing between Mr. Keene and our Miniſtry, is the Right or Privilege claimed by the Engliſh, to cut Logwood in the Bay of Campeachy. The Britiſh Ambaſſador ſeems to expect that this Article will be allowed in the new Treaty; but our Court is rather inclined to look upon it as an Abuſe, and that it is unreaſonable to plead Preſcription for it. However, it is ſtill hoped, that ſome Temperament will be found to adjuſt this Point, eſpecially as there are other Articles of greater Importance, which muſt be previouſly ſettled.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated Auguſt 2.

"The Affair concerning the Perſecution of the Proteſtants in Languedoc, Dauphiny, and ſome other Provinces, begins to be looked upon very ſeriouſly, eſpecially as it forces ſo great a Number of People to go out of the Kingdom, and ſettle in foreign Countries, which muſt neceſſarily cauſe a great Prejudice to the Provinces, where this Perſecution prevails, which will ſoon, in a great Meaſure, be deprived of Inhabitants. The Court takes this Affair the more to Heart, as there are a great Number of Manufacturers in theſe Provinces, who cannot go on with their Buſineſs for want of Workmen; the Court has therefore ſent Orders to treat the reform'd Inhabitants of thoſe Provinces, with leſs Rigour. It is the Marquis de Puyſieux, who has been ſo bold as to inform the King, of the Violences that have been made uſe of towards his Proteſtant Subjects, in divers Places of the Kingdom, and of the fatal Conſequences of ſuch Violences, which was no leſs than the forcing of many Families, to retire into the Territories of the King of Pruſſia, and other Proteſtant Princes of Germany, where they were received with open Arms. The King with his uſual Goodneſs, anſwer'd, But I never order'd that. My Deſire is, That theſe People ſhall not be ill treated, ſo long as they continue faithful to me, do their Duty, and content themſelves with worſhipping GOD their own Way, in their own Families, without acting againſt Ordinances. It is the Archbiſhop of Paris, and the old Biſhop of Mirepoix, who have, for ſome Months paſt, renewed theſe Perſecutions, and againſt which ſeveral Intendants have wrote to Court, in order to ſhew the Injury that the Kingdom at preſent receives, and will in future receive, from them, eſpecially in reſpect to Commerce. This Tranſaction of M. de Puyſieux, has done him a great deal of Honour. ——This ſeems to be a manifeſt Contradiction to the King's late Ordinances, which did forbid both private and public Exerciſe of the Proteſtant Religion; for if worſhipping GOD in their own Way, in their own Families, be not private Worſhip, it is hard to ſay what falls under this Denomination; ſince there are no public Houſes, or Places of Worſhip, allowed them in France."

LONDON.

July 31. On the 19th ult. about Noon, a Fire broke out at Stockholm, in the Church of St. Clare in the Norder Malm, and conſumed that fine Building and ſeveral Houſes; about an Hour after, another Fire happened in the Suder Malm, which did much Damage; and at Nine in the Evening a Brewer's Houſe took Fire and was conſumed with ſeveral adjacent Houſes. On the 21ſt another Fire broke out in the Market in the Suburb of Ladugarſland, and next Day another in the ſame Diſtrict near the Packers Market: by theſe Fires 1000 Houſes have been reduced to Aſhes. The Populace have ſince been very inſolent and affronting to Foreigners whom they ſuſpected, and particularly to the Ruſſian Miniſter, which obliged the King to give an Order for reſtraining ſuch Outrages, under Pain of Death; ſeveral ſuſpected Incendiaries have been ſeized, but their Proceſs is not yet publiſhed.

August 17. By a Letter from Donaghadee, in the North of Ireland, we have the following melancholy Account, viz. that on the first of this Month, at 10 o'Clock in the Morning, about a League to the Southward of the Copeland Isles, a large Ship, called the Duke of Cumberland, of Whitehaven, Joseph Bowman Master, bound for Virginia, with Sale Goods, took Fire, and about 12 o'Clock blew up; twenty-one Sailors and Passengers, took to the Yawl, in the utmost Distress, with only one Oar, and the Sea running very high, they must inevitably have perished, if they had not been seen by the King's Barge, who gave them Assistance, and brought them all safe into Donaghadee, together with some of the Sale Goods which they took up floating, and lodged in his Majesty's Stores. The Ship sunk immediately after the Gun-Powder took Fire.

HALIFAX, in NOVA-SCOTIA, Sept. 28.

A few Days ago arrived here the Torrington Man of War of 40 Guns, Capt. Hutchinson, and a Snow and large Ship with Palatines from Rotterdam, which two last make up four Vessels with Settlers this Year. Also Capt. Craigie with Recruits and Stores for the Garrison. We have now five Men of War here, viz. William Vass, of London, bound from Massa in Italy, for Winyaw in South-Carolina; which Vessel was overset on the 8th of September, in a very violent Gale of Wind, and no Probability of her ever righting; the Captain and Crew next Day took to their Boat, being eight in Number, in which they continued eight Days, when they were happily met with by Capt. Duncan, as above, and carried into Newcastle.

October 28. On Thursday last our Supreme Court ended here, at which a Negro Man lately belonging to Mr. Charles Beekman, was tried, and convicted, for two Burglaries; one for breaking open the House of John Peterson, the other, the House of Isaac Deits, and taking from thence sundry Goods: He received Sentence of Death to be executed on Friday next.

To the FREEMEN of the Province of Maryland.

Oh LIBERTY! Oh SLAVERY!
How Lovely the one, how Despicable the other!

LIBERTY, is the undeniable Birthright of every Free-born Subject of the British Dominions; yet such is the depraved Condition of Mankind in this our degenerate Age, that the Sound of Liberty, is made use of by artful and designing Men, to amuse and abuse that part of Mankind, who from their private Stations in Life, are little conversant with public Affairs; and are therefore subject to be led away by their clamorous Insinuations. As the great Bulwark of British Liberty consists in the free Choice of proper Persons to act in a Legislative Capacity, whose peculiar Business it is to make good and wholesome Laws, for the general Welfare of those they Represent, the Importance of choosing such Men who are most likely to discharge so great a Trust, must be apparent to every one who will give themselves Time to reflect thereon. And as there is now an approaching Election of Representatives, on which the Welfare and Prosperity of Maryland much depends, the Writer of this Paper, being a Well-wisher to his Country, takes this Method to caution the Electors against making a Choice that may prove prejudicial to them. Men whose Merits are magnified by their own Mouths only; who make a daily Practice of Ridiculing all others, that will not in Opposition to their own Reason, fall into their Measures; who have little or no regard to the Rules of Honour and Honesty in a private Station; who give themselves a Licence of Saying any Thing, true or false, so it will but serve to establish their own Interest, and render Men, well worthy of Trust, odious in the Eyes of the People; who set themselves up for Absolute Dictators, by Saying such a Man shall not be elected, and such a one shall; surely such Men can never be proper Persons to Represent a Free People, but are much more fit to carry on the Tyrannical Schemes of some Absolute Monarch. On the contrary, Men of well known Honour and Reputation, who by a regular, just, honest, and industrious Course of Life, have acquired and improved their Fortunes, and therefore have an Interest to promote in common with their Electors; who by their kind and benevolent Disposition to Mankind in general, have deservedly obtained the Characters, not only of honest Men, but true Friends to Society; such as these are the most likely to have the Welfare and Prosperity of their Country at Heart, and consequently will, I hope, have the Voice of every reasonable unprejudiced Freeman in their Favour at the ensuing Election. Which is the sincere Wish of me, who dares to act, as he subscribes himself,

A FREEMAN.
